The "Protecting Citizens' Rights: challenges and opportunities for EU passengers" international conference is part of the "Joint Citizen Action for a Stronger, Citizen-Friendly Union" (JoiEU) project, which focuses on coordinating debate and action in 13 European countries on a set of issues focused on citizen participation and strengthening the citizen base of a deeper European integration. The project is funded by the European Union and implemented by a group of international partners led by ProInfo (Bulgaria).

¹ Over the years Cittadinanzattiva has developed and invested in the technology of citizen protection creating "PiT" (Prigetto Integrato di Tutela - Integrated Project of citizen protection). The project PiT was born in 1999 thanks to the patronage and support of the European Commission DG Sanco - Consumer Protection. "PiT" provides guidance, information and citizen protection for those citizens who have experienced inadequate services in the health service, other public services and in the area of justice.
